HUNGER ACTION MONTH

September is Hunger Action Month, a nationwide campaign reminding us that "We Can End Hunger—When We All Work Together." In Lee County and across Southwest Florida, the need is significant: approximately one in six individuals face food insecurity. According to the Harry Chapin Food Bank, more than 39.5 million pounds of food was distributed in the five-county footprint, including 18.4 million distributed in Lee County in 2024, a 16% increase over 2023. Seniors are also facing tough choices, often deciding between buying groceries or paying for vital medications as grocery prices remain high. FISH sees the impact of these impossible choices every day and is working to ease the burden through several feeding programs. All programs require a quick, easy application or intake discussion with FISH team members:

- Food Pantry | Stocked with fresh produce, shelf-stable items, dairy, frozen proteins (as available), household goods, and personal care products. Located at 2422 Periwinkle Way with updated Hours: 10a-3p Monday/Wednesday/Thursday/Friday and 10 a-7p Tuesday
- Meals by FISH & Monthly Meal Kits | Provides ready-to-eat meals for seniors, neighbors recovering from illness, and those unable to cook. In addition, Meal Kits are offered throughout the year with family-friendly ingredients. Follow FISH social media for the next distribution date.
- Youth Backpack Program | Provides children with a weekend pack filled with snacks and simple meals. This ensures kids don't go hungry when school is closed and helps them return Monday ready to learn. Studies show that children who have consistent access to nutritious food perform better in school, display improved behavior, and have higher attendance rates.

"Hunger looks different for everyone," says Maria Espinoza, Executive Director of FISH. "For children, it can mean struggling in school because they're too hungry to concentrate. For seniors, it can mean skipping meals to afford prescriptions. Hunger Action Month reminds us that we can change these outcomes—together."

FISH LINES

FISH works with food bank partners, Harry Chapin Food Bank and Midwest Food Bank and the program is partially funded by The Sanctuary Golf Club Foundation. FISH also relies on community support year-round to keep its food programs strong. Neighbors can help in many ways—by making a donation that allows FISH to purchase the most-needed items, volunteering to assist in the pantry or with meal and backpack programs, or spreading the word so others know help is available. Those interested in hosting a food drive with their workplace, faith group, or community club are encouraged to collaborate with Merari Salinas at merari@fishofsancap.org. Even the simple act of connecting a neighbor in need to FISH services makes a difference.

Among the items most needed at the FISH Food Pantry are canned proteins such as chicken, tuna, salmon, and beans; rice, pasta, and boxed meals; cooking oil and condiments; and breakfast staples including cereal, oatmeal, pancake mix, and syrup. Shelf-stable milk and juice boxes are also in high demand, along with baby food, diapers, and personal care products like soap, toothpaste, and shampoo. Donations of fresh produce, milk, and eggs are especially welcomed, and FISH has the capacity to refrigerate and distribute these perishable items safely.

For more information on FISH's feeding programs, pantry needs, or upcoming Meal Kit dates, visit fishofsancap.org or call 239-472-4775.

FRIENDLY FACES IN SEPTEMBER

We are inviting friends, neighbors, and visitors to gather for our next Friendly Faces Luncheon on Tuesday, September 9, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. at the Sanibel Community House, 2173 Periwinkle Way. The monthly get-together is open to all ages—whether you live on the islands, work here, or are just visiting. It's a chance to share a meal, connect, and learn something new together.

Special opportunity before the luncheon: Starting at 10:00 a.m., Susan McClintock, CVS Sanibel Pharmacist, will be on-site at the Community House offering free flu shots. Attendees must bring their insurance card. No appointment is needed—just arrive early, get your shot, and stay for the luncheon.

This month's guest is Jenn Carolluzzi, ReUnite Program Manager with United Way of Lee, Hendry & Glades. Jenn will lead a Dementia Sensitivity Training in partnership with the Dementia Care and Cure Initiative (DCCI) of the Lee County Task Force through Elder Affairs Florida. The training is designed to help businesses, organizations, and community members better understand Alzheimer's disease and related dementias, and to discover local resources available for those living with dementia and their caregivers.

Jenn will also share information about the ReUnite Program, a free collaboration between United Way and local Sheriff's Offices. The program provides quick access to vital information to help reduce search time when a loved one goes missing—especially important for those with dementia who may wander.

Lunch will be provided at no cost to guests from island favorite Rosalita's Cantina. Guests can expect good food, friendly faces, and conversation that matters.

FISH Senior Services Director, Erika Arnowitz, says the luncheon is about connection and community. "It's a way for people to come together, connect, and leave with something they can carry forward—whether that's a new resource, a new friend, or simply feeling part of the community."

FISH extends its gratitude to the Sanibel Community House for partnering and co-hosting the event, and to Rosalita's Cantina for preparing the meal. Their support makes these gatherings possible.

Space is limited, so early RSVPs are encouraged. To reserve a spot, contact Erika Arnowitz at FISH by September 5 at 239-472-4775 or erika@fishofsancap.org.

FISH PROVIDES STABILITY WITH WRAPAROUND SUPPORT

We continue to assist neighbors working through hardship—offering not just one service, but a network of support that makes it possible to move forward.

For one island resident, the past few years have been a mix of determination and setbacks. Says Rebecca*, reflecting on her recent involvement with FISH, “Moving from Cape Coral to Sanibel was a dream, but it came with challenges. I didn’t know how I was going to manage the move,” she recalled. That’s when FISH volunteers arrived—bringing a truck, extra hands, and a sense of relief. “They made something that felt impossible, possible.” The name of the individual has been changed for privacy purposes.*

Once settled, she turned her attention to a bigger goal: continuing her education to create better opportunities. Her dream was clear, but the costs quickly became overwhelming. “I wanted so badly to keep going, but between tuition and materials, I couldn’t see how I could afford it,” she said. That’s when FISH stepped in, helping with expenses and ensuring she could stay on track. “Their help meant the world to me, it meant someone believed in me and in my future.”

Just as she began to find her footing, the strain of everyday expenses returned. “I felt like I was slipping backwards,” she said. “No matter how hard I tried, it seemed impossible to dig out of the hole.” That’s when FISH stepped forward once more, providing rental assistance and the breathing room she so desperately needed. “Thanks to FISH, I was able to pay my rent and finally have some room to catch my breath after being in a financial hole for a few months.”

Today, with the immediate crisis behind her, she’s beginning to look ahead with optimism. “Now I feel like I can finally look forward instead of just trying to survive each day,” she said. “I’m hopeful again about the future, and that’s something I didn’t think I’d feel for a long time.”

FISH is able to provide this kind of support—and so much more—because of its dedicated partners. The Sanctuary Golf Club Foundation helps sustain the Rent Financial Assistance program, ensuring neighbors can remain safe and housed. The Zonta Foundation of Southwest Florida supports the continuing education program, giving women a chance to reach new goals and build brighter futures. Together with countless donors and volunteers, these partners form the wraparound safety net that makes stories like hers possible. With their support, FISH remains a steady resource for islanders—offering help today and hope for tomorrow.

“Our wraparound approach is what makes FISH unique,” says Nitza Lopez, Social Services Director. “It’s not just one program or one type of help—it’s the way everything connects. Rent assistance, education, food, and emotional support all come together to give people the chance to find their way.”

WELCOME KIM BAKER

We are pleased to welcome Kim Baker to the team as Executive Assistant. In this key role, Kim supports the Executive Director and works collaboratively with leadership, staff, and volunteers to advance the mission of FISH.

Kim brings extensive professional experience in human resources and administration to the organization. Most recently, she served as Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer at Family Health Centers of Southwest Florida, where she oversaw HR operations for over 675 employees.

"Kim's steady presence, strong organizational skills, and warm personality are already making a difference," says Maria Espinoza, FISH Executive Director. "She's the kind of person who gets things done—and does it with heart. We're lucky to have her on board."

When asked what drew her to FISH, Kim shares, "I'm honored to be part of an organization that embodies the true spirit of 'neighbors helping neighbors.' Having witnessed FISH's compassionate care through my grandmother's experience with their delivery services and medical equipment loan program, I know firsthand the incredible difference this organization makes in people's lives. Any opportunity to support our island community while using my skills to help others is deeply meaningful to me."

Kim's favorite part of the job is connecting with community members, supporting the executive team's mission-driven work, and contributing to an organization that has personally touched her family. Outside of work, Kim enjoys biking, gardening, staying active through health and fitness, and exploring local restaurants across Sanibel and Captiva. Kim is also a member of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), Sanibel-Captiva Conservation Foundation, and a graduate of the Greater Fort Myers Chamber of Commerce Leadership Program. We look forward to everything Kim will bring to her new role as she continues the tradition of "neighbors helping neighbors".

IN MEMORY OF SHEILA ZUHUSKY, FISH VOLUNTEER

Sheila Anne Zuhusky of Sanibel Island, Florida, passed away peacefully on August 3, 2025, at the age of 98. A woman of deep faith, enduring grace, and unwavering devotion to her family, Sheila lived a life marked by love, generosity, and strength.

Born in Providence, Rhode Island, Sheila was the daughter of Gertrude Clavin and William Leander Black. She was one of five children and was predeceased by her siblings Mary Bernadette Corr, James Henry Black, Joan Patricia Dean, and William Black, Jr. She graduated from North Providence High School and earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts from the Rhode Island School of Design in 1948. It was during high school that she met the love of her life, Joseph A. Zuhusky. They married in 1950 and together built a full and joyful life in Baltimore, Maryland; Wantagh and Orient, New York; Southampton, New York; and Sanibel, Florida.

Sheila's greatest joy was her family. Family gatherings—in Southampton, Sanibel, and beyond—were filled with laughter, stories, and cherished traditions. Sheila also gave generously of herself to her community. She was active in the St. Frances de Chantal Rosary Society, the St. Isabel's Women's Guild, and numerous quilting groups, where she built lasting friendships and offered her creativity and service. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Sheila's memory to F.I.S.H. of Sanibel-Captiva or Southampton Hospital Foundation, Southampton, NY.
